the 1990s, the number of people in the UK who are employed in the public sector has increased by 1.5 million, from 2.5 million in 1980 to 4 million in 1998 (Department of Health 1999). The number of people employed in the health sector has increased by 1.2 million, from 2.2 million in 1980 to 3.4 million in 1998.

There is a growing emphasis on the need to improve the quality of care and services provided by the public sector. This has led to a number of initiatives, including the introduction of the Health Care Act 1999, which sets out a framework for the regulation of health care providers. The Act also sets out a number of objectives for the health care system, including the need to improve the quality of care and services, to ensure that care is safe and effective, and to ensure that care is accessible to all.

One of the key challenges facing the health care system is the need to improve the quality of care and services. This is a complex task, as it involves a number of factors, including the quality of the staff, the quality of the facilities, and the quality of the care itself. There are a number of ways in which the quality of care and services can be improved, including the introduction of new technologies, the implementation of new procedures, and the training of staff.

One of the most important ways in which the quality of care and services can be improved is through the implementation of new procedures. This involves the development of new protocols and the implementation of these protocols in a consistent manner. This can be done through a number of ways, including the introduction of new technologies, the implementation of new procedures, and the training of staff.

Another important way in which the quality of care and services can be improved is through the training of staff. This involves the development of new training programmes and the implementation of these programmes in a consistent manner. This can be done through a number of ways, including the introduction of new technologies, the implementation of new procedures, and the training of staff.

There are a number of other ways in which the quality of care and services can be improved, including the introduction of new technologies, the implementation of new procedures, and the training of staff. These are all important factors in the improvement of the quality of care and services, and they all need to be implemented in a consistent manner.

The Health Care Act 1999 sets out a framework for the regulation of health care providers. The Act also sets out a number of objectives for the health care system, including the need to improve the quality of care and services, to ensure that care is safe and effective, and to ensure that care is accessible to all.

Future Plans

After twelve, no thirteen years (including kindergarten), you would think the seniors at Calumet would want an excessively long summer break; maybe one that lasts through summer, fall, winter, and spring, but, no.... The vast majority of seniors are not taking a break. They are going directly to college.

Just as personalities differ, so do the career goals of the seniors. Going to college is a serious step, but there are those who plan to attend college with FUN in mind!

One in a hundred

It's 6:00 a.m., Friday morning. The alarm is buzzing. It's time to make the first decision of the day — should you hit the snooze button or just get up? Ten times out of ten, the next move is to hit the snooze button and go back to sleep. When you finally get up, you have to rush to get ready so you won't be late for first hour. Then, when you get to school, at 7:24, you find the only parking spot left is half a block away. You run to your locker and then to your class, which are in opposite directions. Somehow you manage to make it through the next six hours and are relieved when the dismissal bells ring. Some students go off to practice, while others rush home to begin their long-awaited weekend.

Student life at CHS adds up to a lot more than just activities that go on in the building: Weekends! Two days that pass like two hours. There are several ways in which students spend the two day break. Some go to parties, the movies, or just hang-out with friends. Others just relax at home and catch up on sleep. Each student has his own unique style. He dares to be "One in a Hundred."

SENIOR MEMORIES

The graduating class of 1990 reflects on the past thirteen years with fond memories, as they also look forward to their future. As the class of 1990, they enter the next decade with anticipation of their future, wondering if they will obtain riches quickly or if they'll have to work hard into the next century before making thier first million. Whatever the course they decide to follow we hope they all decide to Dare to be....

Spencer Knight and Tia Nance goof off while cooking. Sean Wells goes to class after getting lectured by Mr. Sajda. Tracy Cox is happy to be at her locker before going home. Steve Denham shows his happiness about being part of the year-book staff.

Holly Diehl receives her diploma from Mr. Abramson, superintendent. Dan Petersen, Ron Moser, Mike Bruce, Johnetta Braunm, Eric Martinez, and Matthew Franco show their enthusiasm of being seniors. Patty Arnold seems to be saying, "Get ready, world! Here I come!" Judy Kubina stares out the window for his Humanities test. Mr. Tauber and Mike Beehn discuss the problem with a new computer program.

TEACHER OF THE YEAR

Teacher of the year honors went to Mrs. Korellis, our devoted French teacher. Mrs. Korellis was elected by her peers to represent Calumet High School in the teacher of the year program sponsored by Inland Steel. Mrs. Korellis began teaching at CHS in August of 1979. She received her bachelor's degree from Blackburn College in Carlinville, IL, and received her master's degree from Valparaiso University. Mrs. Korellis has taught in the history department and the foreign language departments. Congratulations Mrs. Korellis!

Mrs. Korellis shares a laugh with her class. Allison Stump and Ron Tillman receive help from the teacher of the year. Mrs. Korellis illustrates the correct verb form for the French word "wash." Mrs. Korellis puts books away after a tough lesson.

HOMECOMING '89: SKIN THE PANTHERS

Homecoming Spirit Week was the perfect setting for the annual Powder Puff game. On a hot day in Gary, the Senior-Sophomores came back from a 7-0 deficit and tied the Junior-Freshmen team. The Powder Puff game was played during sixth period and cost 50 cents for each student to watch the spectacular event.

Homecoming night started off with the parade, consisting of three of four class floats, the homecoming queen candidates, and the fire trucks.

When gametime came the Warriors hung tough with Griffith, but the Panthers were too strong. At halftime, the big time had come for the queen candidates, Elena Flores, Chrissy Stiller, Nicole Goode, and the homecoming queen winner, Chrissy Gallagher. The second half of the game was played during a rainstorm. After the grimmacing loss, everyone danced at the homecoming dance, where the king, Brian Gronkiewicz, was announced.

a. Sophomores show off their winning float.

b. Seniors display the second place float.

c. Freshmen show their school spirit with their float.

Queen candidates: a. Chrissy Stiller, b. Nicole Goode, c. Chrissy Gallagher, d. Elena Flores. Stephanie Doran sees a way to elude Eliza Reid's tackle. Johnetta Braunm goes back into the pocket looking for someone to pass to. Members of the football team give their rendition of Warrior spirit during the Powder Puff game. The Powder Puff teams square off at the start of the game.

King of Hearts

This was the first year for The King of Hearts dance, which was held around Valentine's Day, sponsored by the Spanish Club. For the semi-formal dance the girls were to invite the boy of their choice. To offset the traditional crowning of a queen they opted to crown a king (won by Ramone Stallings). The entertainment was a limbo contest, and a dance contest.

Ramone Stallings stands tall after being crowned the 'King of Hearts.' Brian Odel and his date share the first slow song together. Mr. Tsangaris and Mr. Portman take a breather at the concession table. Maratiza Colon shows everyone a new dance step. Kathy Vandewater enters with her date.

Shower Me with Your Love

The Turnabout is a dance near Christmas where, traditionally, the girl is supposed to ask the guy to the dance. The theme for Turnabout this year was "Shower Me with Your Love." Turnabout was held on December 16, at 7 p.m. until 11 p.m. in the Calumet cafeteria. The band boosters were the sponsors of the dance.

a. Jennifer Page and her date dance while Mike Colson and Claudette Neri dance together.

b. Everyone gets started on the dance floor.

c. Shannon Anderson, Robin Turlo and Stephanie Fitch are talking at the table.

d. The concession table looks very appetizing.

a. Eric Worthington tells Claudette Neri a secret.
 b. Jennifer Page dances with her date during a slow song. c. Elena Flores dances with her date.
 d. Turnabout dancers wait in the punchline for the tasty punch.

PLAYING WITH PRIDE

The band's concert was a tribute to the departing seniors. All seniors received a rose at the end of the concert from the underclassmen. Most of the seniors had been with the band for four years. They entertained at homecoming and all home football and basketball games. The band's enthusiasm is exhibited well throughout their playing.

Barney Sanders waits for his cue during a song. The clarinets play their part. Karen McBride plays the saxophone. Norma Ruehl and Stacy Taylor perform a duet.

CHS CHOIR

The CHS choir kept busy all year working on performances and preparing for concerts. The highlight of the year was the spring concert. Each member took part in a musical production which was enjoyed by the entire audience.

5th hour chorus members front: Penny Rhoten, Candy Procter, Paula Smith, Shannon Anderson, Carol Anderson, and Shameake Clark row 2: Julie Haines, Brandie Perez, Stefanie Estrada, Heidi Sanders, Paula Sanders, Paula Thomas, Teresa Benson, and Crissy Salgado row 3: Charlotte Robinson, Kellie Hoskins, Kim Derr, Vernon Doom, Stephanie Fitch, Robyn Turlo, and Stephanie Doran Michelle Ferguson sings her heart heart. Eric Worthington performs his solo. Danny Ferguson does a solo for the audience. 5th hour officers: Kellie Hoskins, Charlotte Robinson, Mr. Velasco, Stephanie Doran, and Heidi Sanders.

Penny Rhoten, Kerry Gallagher,
Gina Valentine, Claudette Neri,
Linda Rubalcava, Julie Madsen,

Gods and Goddesses of CHS

Mrs. Walters' sophomore English classes studied Greek mythology and found the lesson very stimulating. They decided to have each student pick a favorite god or goddess and portray that character for the class. Each student was to dress and act out the most famous story behind the god or goddess he or she portrayed.

Kristine VonOgden portrays Hera. Robert Wilson gives his Zeus character analysis. James Stevens shows the character of Achilles. Stephanie Cheek portrays a gray woman as Kerri Day acts as a cyclop. Erika McLaurin is Hera for the day. Joe Calhoun brings the message of Hermes to the class.

Candice Jimerson decorates a table for prom. After all the decorating, the hall has been transformed. Denise Duncan hangs crepe paper to help create the proper atmosphere. An unidentified junior helps prepare the archway for the promgoers.

"If only for one night"

Prom was very unique and well thought out this year. The prom theme, "If only for one night," was very appropriate for the special night. Many of the promgoers did not want the night to end. The prom queen and king were Candice Jimerson and Dave Schubert; however, Candice gave her crown to classmate Gina Valentine because Gina will be in New York her senior year working in an off-broadway production.

The king and queen's court include Doug Richardson, Debbie Anderson, Candice Jimerson, Dave Schubert, Precious Vargas, Andy Trevino, Ramone Stallings, and Maritza Colon. Mike Bruce and Tracy Swindle seem to be enjoying prom. Leroy Foreman and Laura Guerrero show off the Z-95 t-shirts they won. Candice Jimerson and Dave Schubert share the king and queen dance.

SENIOR BANQUET

Seniors are traditionally given an awards banquet at the end of their senior year. This year the senior banquet was held on June 4 in the school cafeteria. The banquet honors the seniors who have had an outstanding academic career, as well as those seniors who have excelled in the honors program. On the lighter side of the program, the senior class votes on a variety of "gag" awards and awards appropriate to the honor is given to the senior recipient.

Mr. Miller, principal, mentions the achievements of the salutatorian and valedictorian, Chris Ols and Scott York, during ceremonies. Ms. McCray presents Debbie Fultz with her Business Professionals of America award for outstanding achievements. Mrs. Korellis congratulates Jennifer Page. Whitanya Alexander proudly displays her certificate of recognition of high academic honors from Purdue University.

Chrissy Stiller receives congratulations from Mr. Higginbotham during the awards ceremony. Mrs. Jones gives Mike Perez a certificate and medal for his leadership abilities. Shannon Haines receives a congratulatory handshake from Ms. Yatsko as Shawn Roark looks on. Mr. Higginbotham shows the rest of the seniors the achievement award Jeffery Weiser is receiving.

The GRADUATES...

Many years and memories have passed for the class of 1990. A new decade welcomes them into the world. Whether they choose to go onto college, a trade school, an armed service, or find a job after their final steps in CHS, they will all remember the twelve years it took to reach their first of many goals. Many opportunities await the class of '90, and everyone hopes they DARE TO BE....

The class of 1990, Scott York delivers his valedictorian address to his classmates. The senior class is escorted into the fieldhouse by Candice Jimerson and Dave Schubert. Dan Petersen, Tina Perryman, Carl Pendley, and Tina Pedersen receive last minute instructions from Ms. Yatsko.

Members of the senior class show different emotions and anticipation as they make the trek to their seats in the fieldhouse. Laurie Guerrero hugs an unidentified senior as they celebrate their accomplishments. Dale Rader accepts his diploma from Mr. Abramson, superintendent. Chris Ols delivers his salutatorian speech to his graduating classmates.

Warriors' Effort

Calumet High School's awesome Warriors had a rough time in the attempt to reach the top. They ended the season 1-9 overall, and 1-5 in the conference.

The mighty Warriors did have some outstanding players this year. Receiving awards for the Warriors were three year letter winners- Mark Dillingham and Chris Ols; Most Improved- Brandon Bewley; Best Offensive Lineman- Brian Gronkiewicz; Best Defensive Back- Alex Serrano; Four Quarters Award- Chris Ols; Most Valuable Player- Ramon Stallings; Head Hunter- Chris Ols.

Co-captains this year, Chris Ols and Mark Dillingham, represented the Warriors newfound enthusiasm well. Calumet's new head football coach, Mr. Bunda, made a lot of changes and improvements, even though the record does not show it.

The football team faces hard competition in the conference, like Crown Point Bulldogs, Lake Central Indians, Highland Trojans, Munster Mustangs, and our rival Griffith Panthers. The Lowell Red Devils, another conference team were defeated by the Warriors 14-12 in regular season, but we were beaten by them in the sectionals.

Some football members were selected to the Lake Suburban All-Conference team. Honorable Mention went to Alex Serrano — Defensive Back. On the second team was Brian Gronkiewicz — Defensive Line. Voted onto the first team all-conference were: Ramon Stallings- Defensive Back and Chris Ols- Center. Chris Ols also made the first team All-Area Academic Team.

One of the things that Mr. Bunda brought to the program was a contest. There were five different teams and a group captain, which was a coach. The contest judged which team was the loudest, did drills the quickest, and showed the most spirit. At the end of each week the winning team and their coach ate pizza, the losing teams and coaches ate beans. This went on for about five weeks.

Freshmen Football

The freshmen football team started out on the right foot with a big win over River Forest. Their next game was a disappointing loss to larger school Lake Central. The young men did not let that get them down as they went after Highland in the next game. After three games, and a record of 2-1, the freshmen boys seemed to be destined for a great season. However, the boys were outplayed the next four games with losses to tough conference teams.

JV Volleyball

The JV volleyball team worked hard against a very strong conference. The results were not always favorable, but the girls always worked together and never gave up. The team ended the season at 2-18, which does not indicate the long way they came with so many freshmen learning the high school game.

Team members front: Amy Zamora, Isabel Vibanco, Michelle Regalado, Jamie Kubina, and Joyce Sharp. back: Miss Markovich, coach, Roxanne Harper, Selena Burke, Carolyn Terpstra, Rae Torres, Anisa Rubalcava, and Cindy Eaton. Roxanne Harper passes the ball to the setter. Carolyn Terpstra passes the ball as teammate Anisa Rubalcava sets up to approach the net for a spike.

Volleyball Rebuilds

The volleyball team had to work on rebuilding. Thus, this year's team was very young. Only three seniors, Whitanya Alexander, Judy Kubina, and Joy Nelson, were around for leadership. The team sported three juniors, four sophomores, and one freshman.

Because the team was young and inexperienced at the varsity level, they took a beating throughout the season. However, many matches were decided by three games. The girls look to improve in the next year.

Lady Seahawks

The girls' swim team has been improving year by year. Let's take it back a couple of years, back when the team would have been glad to win a meet. Now the team is winning. It proves the team has improved.

This year the team has had some close meets. For example, in the meet against North Newton, the Lady Seahawks won by two points, 74-72. The event that decided the meet was the last event: The 400 Meter Relay. The team returns everyone except Stacy Taylor and Karyn McBride.

At the awards banquet, M.V.P. went to Stacy Taylor, Pride-Hustle and Desire went to Chris Miller, and Most Improved Swimmer went to Michelle Sutherland.

Lacie Roedel gets ready to go off the starting blocks. Sophomore Caryn Slade swims the 100 yard breaststroke.

Anna Toledo swims the 100 meter freestyle during the 400 meter relay. Lady Seahawk Kim Holmes swims the backstroke during the individual medley relay. Tonya Taylor struggles in the 50 meter freestyle.

BOYS' SWIMMING

The boys' swim team remains young as the majority of the team were sophomores. Throughout the season records were set and broken by many individuals. The team won some close meets, and stayed in the running with many tough opponents. The future looks bright as the team returns many of its lettermen.

Girls' Varsity wins impressively

The Girls' Varsity Basketball team had an impressive season which ended in the sectional game against Hobart.

The season ended with a record of 9 wins and 10 losses. After losing five starters from the previous year, the Warriors were not expected to do as well as they did this year. The Lady Warriors' impressive season was evident by big wins over Highland, Lowell, and Lake Station. Although the Lady Warriors lost to teams such as Crown Point, Bishop Noll, and Lake Central, they were within five points of each by the end of the first half. Awards went to Candice Jimerson for best shooting percentage, Eliza Reid for best rebounder and best free throw percentages, and Kasia McClendon had the most steals and most assists for the team. Eliza Reid was elected the most valuable player.

JV BASKETBALL

The boys' junior varsity basketball team had a rough season. Many times players were moved from the freshman team up to the junior varsity, or from the junior varsity to the varsity level, so coach Tauber had to develop a nucleus from which he pooled talent for any given night. The boys had to learn the fundamentals and the Warrior approach to basketball quickly in order to adapt to the rigors of playing on any of the three teams.

Upsetting Season for Warriors

Mr. Traicoff and his team had to overcome many obstacles this season. The team's trouble started before the season was a week old. Athletes were declared ineligible, injuries occurred, among other catastrophes. The young team matured slowly, but proudly throughout the season.

Many awards were given to this year's team. Senior Sam Shelton received the Most Valuable Player award. Freshman Lee Mobley won the first-ever Rookie of the Year award. Senior Dale Rader won the Rebounding award. Keith Haskins, who had to sit out the season, won the Mental Attitude award.

FRESHMAN BASKETBALL

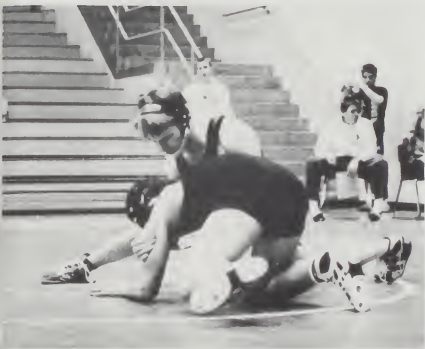

The freshman basketball team struggled through a tough season, losing nine of twelve games. Because of uncontrollable problems on the varsity team, a few JV players moved up to the varsity team, forcing freshmen players to split time with the junior varsity team. However, the freshmen were able to experience a three game winning streak.

YOUNG WRESTLERS

The young wrestlers experienced victory many times during the season. Some of the wrestlers were brought up for varsity matches to tests their strength against others. With the tradition of winning at CHS, many of the boys had worked with coach Wadkins for a few years at his clinics.

Mike Beehn works for a pin against a Lowell opponent. Mike Redd seems to be pinned. Scott Taylor gets some pointers from coach Sanchez. Tom Muzek has his opponent pinned.

CHS GRAPPLERS

The varsity wrestling team, as a whole, did as well as the individuals. The team took first in the Valparaiso Viking Invitational, the Chris Traicoff Invitational, the Lake Suburban Conference, and, for the eleventh year in a row, in Sectionals. Adding a regional runner-up to their list of victories. The team ended the season with an impressive 18-1-1 record.

Year after year the wrestling team has some kind of talent. Sophomore Bryan Arnold (103) won his second sectional title and was runner-up in the Lake Suburban Conference (LSC), and finished fourth in the regional. He ended the season with a 16-16 record. Senior Anthony Allen (112) finished the season 30-5, and had titles in the LSC and sectional, and was runner-up in the Valpo and Traicoff meets. He also received the Mental Attitude Award. Senior Scott York (119), co-MVP, ended his season with a 33-8 record, finishing the season with a first in the LSC, Traicoff, and sectional meets. He took second at Valpo and finished third in regionals and fourth at semi-state. Scott also made the Team First team all area and the first team Academic All-State.

Junior Andy Trevino (125), co-MVP, placed first at the Valpo meet, first for the third time in the Traicoff and LSC meets (where he also won the MVP award). Andy also won his third consecutive sectional title and his second regional title. Andy finished first at semi-state, but had to settle for a fourth at the state meet. He ended his season with an impressive 29-0 record.

REMAIN STRONG

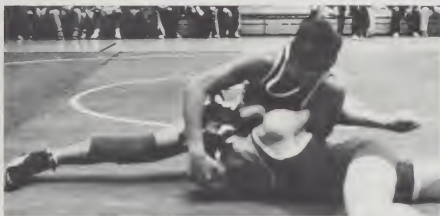

Junior Philip Rouse (130) ended his season at 15-18, including a second in sectionals. Junior Doug Richardson (135) took a second in the Traicoff meet, the LSC, and at sectionals. He placed third in regionals and finished his season with a 16-14 record. Sophomore Ed Fowler (140) finished the season by placing first in the sectionals and second in regionals. Junior Ed Smith (145) took a first in sectionals, was runner-up in the Valpo meet and regionals.

Senior Mark Dillingham (152) finished his senior year with titles in the Traicoff and LSC meets. He also placed second in the sectionals, but was upset in the regional. Senior Adam Marmorek (171) finished his season with a sectional title, he also finished second in the Traicoff and LSC meets and regionals. He finished the season at 30-14. Senior Chris Ols (180) finished his year with a first in the Traicoff meet, and second in the LSC and sectionals. He finished his career at 19-8. Junior heavyweight Ron Tillman won the Traicoff meet and finished third in the LSC meet.

Eddie Fowler waits for the official's whistle to begin his match. It doesn't look good for the opponent. Anthony Allen has his opponent struggling.

EXCEEDING EXPECTATIONS

Excelling at track for Calumet has always been a struggle. Many times a lack of members forces some events to be unrepresented by CHS. However, there can be a plus to that side. This year the plus was Brian Gronkiewicz. Brian excelled in the discus and the shot put. He set a new school record in the discus and represented the school in the regional and state competitions, finishing 15th in the discus and 19th in the shot put at the state meet. CHS also won the Griffith Invitational this year, beating teams such as Griffith and Munster.

Hitting the Links

Golf is a very difficult game to learn quickly," Coach Stigall commented in explaining why the team usually has a slow start. With a team consisting of mainly novices, he had to start by teaching the techniques. The team usually improved from game to game, but still struggled to compete against powerhouses in the area. Chris Winstead, a transfer from North Carolina, was the most consistent golfer.

CHS SOFTBALL

New and improved! That's how the 1990 girls' softball team was thought of by other teams and the officials. The girls had to dispell the myth of being an easy mark for the opponent. It took only one game for the team to gain respect. After the Morton game, the officials came up to say they thought that the team had improved drastically in a year.

It took a while for the ladies to earn their first win, but it was well deserved. The ladies came back from a 9-6 deficit to beat Lowell. The highlight of the season came when the ladies won their second game against Munster, to finish better in the conference than in any previous year.

BEGINS NEW ERA

Kelly Bewley, Jennifer Kluga, Precious Vargas, Selena Burke, and Cindy Eaton help get a rally started. Eliza Reid and Kelly Bewley charge off the field after the third out. Kelly Bewley pitches a strike. Precious Vargas listens intently to Ms. Green's hitting instructions. Pitcher Michelle Gregory seems displeased with the calls of the homeplate umpire.

CHS BASEBALL

Anybody who plays Coach Feeler's boys can expect to fret and sweat, as was evident in the post season play. The Warriors ended the regular season with a 16-14 record. Entering the sectionals many fans expected them to win one or two games, but not to finish with a sectional title. The Warriors surprised Merrillville in the championship game with a 19-1 win. Upon entering the regional, CHS faced LSC foe Munster, who had beaten the Warriors twice during the season. The Warriors pulled a 4-1 upset with help from Terry Keller's homerun. The Warriors then entered the regional championship against another LSC foe, Crown Point. The boys struggled through the first six innings, trailing 6-1 going into the bottom of the seventh. The Warriors pulled together to score three runs to put a scare into the Bulldogs, but came up empty handed at the end, losing 6-4.

JV BASEBALL

The JV Baseball team had a losing streak of five games before winning its first game. In that exciting game, Danny Mata hit a homerun and Mike Rhyne had the game winning hit in the bottom of the seventh inning. Mr Schocke, coach, commented, "We've wanted to be competitive all season. We finally had the drive and desire to fight hard for a win."

GIRLS TRACK LACK NUMBERS

Numbers were lacking for this year's girls' track team. The season started with nine girls and ended with three. Freshman Rashi Lofton was the stronghold for the team as she finished in the top two in most of the meets. She competed in the 100 and 200 meter dashes.

Freshman Rashi Lofton explodes from the pack to win the 100 meter dash. Amy Zamora shows the finishing form needed after throwing the shot put. Freshman Rashi Lofton crosses the finish line ahead of the other competitors in the 200 meter dash.

Candice Jimerson waits on the pitch. Alex Serrano connected on this swing. Sam Shelton gets his shot off over the defense. Greg Chandler works on his passing technique as Ramone Stallings watches. Chris Deremiah follows through on her backhanded shot. Kelly Bewley looks for an open teammate to pass to.

Calumet yearbook staff members are busy throughout the year putting together an exciting yearbook for classmates to enjoy. The staff members brainstorm for theme ideas and layout techniques.

Joy Komoscar designed this year's cover and senior section of the book, keeping in mind the impression a yearbook makes by its design. Tonya Taylor was in charge of picture taking and the sports section; Mike Rhyne helped with the sports section. Kelly Frey and Eliza Reid were in charge of the index, ads, and the underclassmen sections. Darrell Taylor worked on the activities section, while Tina Perryman and Jenny Vaupel were in charge of the clubs. John Conner helped where needed and took pictures. Carol Eriks joined us during the second semester and helped with clubs and sports. Steve Denham was in charge of putting all information in the computer to make shipping easier.

CHS Newspaper

Newspaper staff members are the people who create our school's newspaper, Smoke Signals. This year the newspaper and yearbook staffs went to the Chicago Tribune Freedom Center to see how a big time newspaper is put together. The newspaper staff is responsible for selling ads to help supplement the cost of the printing and is responsible for creating ideas to spark interesting articles in the student newspaper.

S.T.R.A.I.T.

Students Together Reaching All In Trouble (S.T.R.A.I.T.) replaced the Students Against Drunk Driving (S.A.D.D.) club this year under the leadership of Mrs. Jones, Mrs. Whitcomb, and Mrs. Long. The change in the name occurred because the sponsors and students wanted to create a more diverse help group. S.T.R.A.I.T. did many things throughout the school year to inform students about the dangers of drugs and alcohol, but the most remembered event was the "dying" of students to be aware of the ramifications of drug and alcohol abuse.

The S.T.R.A.I.T. drug panel made up of area dignitaries and senior Scott Kirkley discuss effects of drugs to the student body. Junior Precious Vargas has "died" during drug awareness week. Crissy Selgado has a date with death during drug awareness week.

C-TEENS

The C-Teens were once known as the Sunshine Club. It was a philanthropic service organization whose membership was open to girls only. Some of the activities the C-Teens have been associated with are collecting and repairing toys for children at Riley's Children's Hospital in Indianapolis, Christmas caroling at local nursing homes, and distribution of food baskets to needy families in Calumet Township at Thanksgiving and Christmas. The C-Teens have also given a college scholarship to a C-Teen planning to further his or her education. Over the past twenty years this club has performed many charitable services for the people of this community.

Dare To Remember The Past

It is always nice to look back and see what our teachers used to look like. The dates listed show when each teacher began, which explains how they know all the cheating methods. Each teacher also gave us one of his or her most embarrassing moment — so we know they do get themselves in tight situations.

Mr. Higgenbotham (1966-?) I was demonstrating the method of lifting a heavy object. I bent over and ripped my pants.

Mrs. Weakland (1974-?) While I was cleaning my desk I opened all drawers. The desk fell on top of me.

Mr. Prohl (1978-?) I felt sick during class and threw up in the garbage can.

Miss Doty (1955-1990) I was teaching tumbling in P.E. and I dove over the mats. I fell with all mats falling on top of me.

Mr. Starky (1957-1990) We held a Ping-Pong fund-raiser and I thought I was good at it. I played a champion from China and lost.

Mrs. Simic (1971-?) I wore two different black shoes to school. One had a wedge heel and the other had a regular heel.

Mrs. Kapetanovic (1972-?) I ran a film backwards and Mr. Julius and Mr. Abramson came into my class.

Mrs. Sajda (1969-?) I wore two different shoes and they both had two different designs.

Mrs. Walters (1985-?) I could not attend a parent-teacher meeting. I put a sign on my door and noticed I misspelled a word.

Kristie VonOgden serves up an ace.

the 1990s, the number of people with a mental health problem has increased by 50% (Mental Health Act 1983, 1990).

There is a growing awareness of the need to improve the lives of people with mental health problems. The Department of Health (1994) has set out a vision of a new mental health service, one that is more effective, more efficient, more humane and more caring. The vision is based on the following principles:

- People with mental health problems should be treated as individuals, with their own needs and wishes.
- People with mental health problems should be treated with respect and dignity.
- People with mental health problems should be treated as equal citizens.
- People with mental health problems should be treated as partners in their own care.

The vision is based on the following principles: people with mental health problems should be treated as individuals, with their own needs and wishes; people with mental health problems should be treated with respect and dignity; people with mental health problems should be treated as equal citizens; people with mental health problems should be treated as partners in their own care.

the 1990s, the number of people with a diagnosis of schizophrenia has increased in the United Kingdom (Meltzer 1998).

There is a growing awareness of the need to improve the lives of people with mental health problems. The United Kingdom has a number of national strategies for mental health care, including the 1998 Mental Health Act (MHA) and the 1999 Mental Health Strategy (MHS). The MHA sets out the principles of mental health care, including the need to provide a range of services to meet the needs of people with mental health problems. The MHS sets out the principles of mental health care, including the need to provide a range of services to meet the needs of people with mental health problems. The MHS also sets out the principles of mental health care, including the need to provide a range of services to meet the needs of people with mental health problems.
